DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Herring US patent 5,067,526

Herring clearly discloses a papermaking fabric using weft pairs as binder yarns between the upper and lower layers, figure 5 clearly shows the 'at least four segments' configuration in claim 1.

The segments have different lengths as in claim 2.

The segments have the configuration recited in claims 3-6.

Various areas in figure 3a show the configuration in claim 11.

Claim 12 is redundant to limitations in claim 1.

Figure 8 shows the yarn pair and that one clearly weaves less with machine side than the other as claimed.

Limitations in claim 16 are inherent to any fabric structure having 'segments' as defined in claim 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 15, 17 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over '526.

Although '526 teaches essentially all of the limitations of the instant invention, '526 does not explicitly teach a different number of segments per weft yarn, warp yarns in the repeat, or the ratio of paper side warp to machine side warp.

However, these limitations are simply obvious variants to weave design in the production of any fabric.

Absent any criticality nor unexpected results arising from using these weave design variables it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art of woven fabric production to modify the number of segments per weft yarn, number of warps in the weave repeat, and/or the ratio of paper side warp to machine side warp through routine experimentation to optimize the resultant papermaking fabric for the desired end use application of the fabric.
